HIGHWAY BILL PASSES AND SPECIAL LEVY CUT

(Special to the Bonanza.)

CARSON CITY, Mar. 14.—The highway bill was passed last night by the senate. It cuts the appropriation to $40,000 and reduces state and county tax rates for 1917 to seven cents. The salary of the engineer is $4,000 a year.

The primary election bill was passed by the senate last night. The tax commission bill passed the senate today. This raises the salary of the secretary to $3,000 a year and places cities and towns under control of the commission.

The senate heard two rather acrimonious discussions yesterday afternoon, the first on the proposed amendments to the industrial insurance act as contained in a bill introduced by the joint committee on labor and the second on the water bill.

Huskey, Harrington and Thatcher engaged in a three-sided debate on the industrial insurance act and during his remarks Huskey accused the labor committee, of which Harrington is chairman, of purposely holding up the amendment until the last hour of the session. Harrington replied and denied the allegation made by Huskey. He then moved to make the bill a special order for later in the afternoon. This was opposed by Thatcher, who insisted that the opponents of the bill be given a chance to come to Carson and be heard. Thatcher moved.

Count Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States expressed proud joy at the manner in which the German people are bearing with their head high the result of the break with the United States, which he (Bernstorff) so long prevented.

Count Bernstorff is quoted as saying that he was keenly affected by the news which he received for the first time at Christiania, that instructions that had passed through his hands to the German minister in Mexico had come to the knowledge of the American government.

It is natural that its publication caused the greatest sensation in America," Count von Bernstorff said, declaring: "we always strictly declined to mix ourselves in the politics of the American continent."

All American assertions about such intrigues in Hayti, Cuba and Colombia are fairy tales, von Bernstorff is quoted as saying, and added that positively so long as he was ambassador at Washington he was never aware of the slightest indication that the German government tried to influence the policy of South or Central American states in any way.

The official visit of Isaac Bair, grand exalted ruler of the B. P. O. E. of the state of Nevada, was the signal last night for an invasion of the camp by the best bunch of boosters ever sent out from the gold camp. Over three score members of the antlered herd motored over from Goldfield early in the evening and remained until the lights went out. Tonopah Lodge No. 1062 gathered fresh laurels with the programme of entertainment arranged. The home was packed almost to capacity, but every home member and visitor was treated with that hospitality that always distinguishes the Tonopah Elks. Round Mountain, Manhattan and Millers were also represented by several automobile parties.

The initiation of nine new members was accomplished with some rather startling features that impressed the candidates with the hazards of the journey they were about to undertake. This feature satisfied the curiosity of a couple of bankers who were enrolled in the class and who thought their exalted positions rendered them immune from the usual ordeal set forth for novices. At the conclusion of the initiation a banquet was served. Before this event Isaac Bair, the grand exalted ruler, spoke in the lodge on the progress of the order in his jurisdiction and urged the members to greater efforts in swelling the ranks of those who believe in letting the sands of time carry the faults of humanity while their good deeds are graven in imperishable granite.

ed to make the bill a special order for today, and the motion carried.

The water bill was discussed by State Engineer Kearney and Assemblyman Hardy. Kearney roasted the opponents of the present bill on one side and down the other, and said the new bill represented the "very essence of corporate greed." Hardy defended the new bill and that all the diverse interests had agreed to it as a good measure.

The bill was reported from the committee of the whole without recommendation.

The conference committee on elections recommended that the senate accept the assembly substitute for the Luce and Huskey bills and the report of the committee was adopted. The bill contains about 90 per cent of the Huskey bill.

The highway bill was reported by the joint committee on ways and means and roads favorably with an amendment restoring Reno to the east and west route and cutting the appropriation for $100,000 to $40,000.

The general appropriation bill was reported by the senate committee on the whole favorably. It carries appropriations totaling approximately $600,000, among which is one to take care of a university deficit of $30,444. Putney's bill making an appropriation of elimination shoots was passed by the senate.

GERMAN INTRIGUES IN AMERICA ARE THE VERIEST FAIRY TALES

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, March 14.—The Hamburger Fremdenblatt, according to Reuters' Amsterdam correspondent, prints an interview its representative had at Copenhagen in which Count von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States expressed proud joy at the manner in which the German people are bearing with their head high the result of the break with the United States, which he (Bernstorff) so long prevented.

Count Bernstorff is quoted as saying that he was keenly affected by the news which he received for the first time at Christiania, that instructions that had passed through his hands to the German minister in Mexico had come to the knowledge of the American government.

It is natural that its publication caused the greatest sensation in America," Count von Bernstorff said, declaring: "we always strictly declined to mix ourselves in the politics of the American continent."

All American assertions about such intrigues in Hayti, Cuba and Colombia are fairy tales, von Bernstorff is quoted as saying, and added that positively so long as he was ambassador at Washington he was never aware of the slightest indication that the German government tried to influence the policy of South or Central American states in any way.

STRIKE ORDER

In the event of war, and adds: "seemingly it has been the purpose of the railroad companies to postpone a settlement of this question until a panic or war defeats our demands."

There is every indication that the president is prepared to move again if it becomes apparent that the nation, facing the gravest international crisis of its history, is about to have its transportation facilities paralyzed. Although still confined to his bed by a cold, the president heard reports during the day from Secretary Wilson on the plans of the brotherhoods. There was no statement as to what action he is contemplating, but it is understood to be probable that his first step may be an appeal to the employers and employees to reach an agreement as a patriotic duty.

The southeastern railroad officials were told by the brotherhood chiefs that the strike orders had been arranged so as to have the walk-out begin on a certain group of railroads at 7 p. m. (eastern standard time) Saturday and gradually extended to all roads in the country by the next Wednesday.

Each 24 hours until Wednesday, a new group would be affected. This progressive system, the brotherhood men were arranged to seriously disarranging traffic suddenly throughout the entire country and to give the railroads a chance to stop the strike's spread by meeting the union demands if they wish.

It is admitted that the strike plan disclosed by the railroad conference committee in New York were substantially correct, except that the specific roads to be affected day by day were not named correctly.

While the brotherhood leaders would not talk for publication about their strike arrangements, they declared all strike plans had been given unanimous approval by the sectional meetings so far held, and that similar action was certain to be taken by the meeting in New York and St. Paul.

TONOPAH BOY DIES SUDDENLY IN RENO

Emil E. Brazell, of Tonopah, who was taken to Reno several months ago for treatment, died of paralysis in a local hospital Sunday afternoon. He was a native of Queensland, Australia, coming from there to Nevada with his parents when a boy. He was 30 years of age at the time of his death. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Brazell of Tonopah, and four brothers, Harry M., of Alameda, Cal., William G. and Bertie L., of Seattle, Wash., and Albert J. of Tonopah.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brazell and their son Albert J., returned this morning from attending the funeral in Reno. They reside on Central street and have the sympathy of their numerous friends. Only last week it was reported that the deceased was recovering so rapidly that he would be removed to his home in Tonopah and Albert J. Brazell went to Reno to accompany his brother back. Death came while Albert was in the room.

BUTLER THEATER

Tonight's the night! The greatest picture of them all. The new edition de luxe of "The Spellers," Rex Beach's famous Alaska story, which in its original form was the sensation of the moving picture world.

It was then in nine reels. It is now in 12. The Selig company has made a new and greater "Spellers." It has been expanded by many great scenes and incidents that were formerly omitted and will not surpass even its former success. It is one of the few pictures that bears repeating. It has played return dates everywhere—in many places three and four times. It had a phenomenal run in San Francisco when it first came out. The famous fight between Glennister (Wm. Farnum) and McNamara (Tom Sanchi) will always stand by itself in motion picture history. It's equal has never been reproduced, although many attempts have been made by the foremost companies of the country. It was in this production that Kathryn Williams first distinguished herself as a real motion picture star. Owing to the length of the program, the first night show will start promptly at 6:30, the second at 9:00. Tomorrow, a vaudeville act by H. A. B. Sneve, consisting of impersonations of "The Swede Preacher" delivering his first sermon in English. Florence La Badie in "Divorce and the Daughter" and Hearst-Pathe News.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Here they are again! Kolb & Dill in a five-reel comedy entitled "Bluff." This is the picture we were all looking for on March 5th. Louis and Mike, together with a young millionaire, become the best known people in America, solely on their nerve in this brilliant comedy drama, and the famous comedians, Kolb and Dill, add another hit to the long list of stage and screen successes. Although "Bluff" is primarily a farce and abounds in screamingly funny situations, its comedy is cleverly contrasted with beautiful pathos, while a fascinating love story in which the young millionaire and a dashing young school teacher are the principals. Be sure to be on hand and see the ending of Louis and Mike and the young millionaire, also see the burning of the school house and the thrilling rescue of the children. Reel Life, 1000 feet of film showing an argosy from the Arctic, English walnuts in the U. S. and many other interesting and educational subjects. Tomorrow: Myrtle Gonzales in "The End of the Rainbow," a Bluebird feature in five parts. Mutt and Jeff, and a Christie comedy. Mutt and Jeff constitute the greatest comedy team in cartoon history, whose doings are the talk of every home in the land. Don't fail to see them.

GIRL COMES BY STORK ROUTE
Manna Aili is passing around the smokes today in celebration of the arrival of a girl weighing eight pounds, who appeared at his home this morning. Both mother and child are doing well.

HIGH WIND ACCOMPANIED BY DROP IN TEMPERATURE

March is maintaining its reputation as a windy month. Last night a storm arose about dusk and blew from the southeast until after midnight, when it shifted around and turned into the west. The maximum velocity was 30 miles an hour, but there were moments when the rate exceeded this by almost 100 per cent.
